What we do

How does ITIC and TCOS protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We will continue to enhance our physical, electronic and procedural safeguards as new technologies become available.

How does ITIC and TCOS collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an account or apply for insurance
- file a claim or provide your mortgage information
- show your government issued ID

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes —information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
